

Grief and Bereavement Resources

Below are a few suggested bereavement resources you may find helpful to support you in your grief journey including links to outside agencies, online tools, and information handouts. This is not a complete list of agencies and organizations. The Saskatchewan Health Authority (SHA) does not recommend one organization over another and is not responsible for the care and services provided. Please contact agencies or organizations directly to make sure the information is correct or to find out more about their services. None of these are meant to replace seeking professional advice.

SHA healthcare providers are available for bereavement support and can assist you in exploring available resources in your community and provincially. These resources may include your faith or spiritual community, family practitioner, primary health care networks, private counselling, health care team, funeral homes, palliative care programs, mental health services, etc.
